

CV for University Applications

Everything you need to build a CV that gets read, not skipped.

Think of your CV as your personal advert. It has one job: answer the question “Why should the university choose you?”

1 Personal Details

- Name, email, phone number, country
- Keep it professional — no nicknames or casual email addresses

2 Personal Profile

4–5 lines

- Who you are
- What you want to study
- Your career goal
- Why you're a good fit

3 Education

Most recent first

- Institution & qualification
- Grades (actual or predicted)
- Relevant projects or research

4 Work Experience

Include start/end month & year

- Don't just list duties — show what you achieved
- Skills you developed
- Responsibilities you held

5 Volunteering & Leadership

Universities value students who contribute

- Charity work
- Clubs & sports teams
- Student leadership roles

6 Skills

Choose skills relevant to your course

- Communication, teamwork, leadership
- IT, research, time management

7 Achievements

- Awards & scholarships
- Certificates
- Competitions

✓ Before You Submit

- Maximum 2 pages
- Easy to read, no spelling mistakes
- Professional email address
- Tailored to your chosen course
- Saved as a PDF

✗ Avoid These Mistakes

- Copying someone else's CV
- Including irrelevant information
- Long paragraphs, poor formatting

✗ Also Avoid

- Using informal language
- Forgetting to proofread
- Submitting without a second read

REMEMBER

A good university CV doesn't just tell universities what you've done.
It shows them the student you have the potential to become.
